

TRAINEE ACTIVITIES

Title	Dietitian trainee
Duration of Occupational	20 weeks
Work Hours	9.00 AM - 5.30 PM
Commencement Date	1 Sep 03 (TBC)
Location	A Melbourne Hospital Melbourne VIC
Supervised by	Ms Virginia F. Christine N.

Benefits/Activities

- Gain work experience in a corporate environment with a strong management focus on dietetics.
- Opportunity to enhance food service & dietetics management skills
- Improve verbal and written English skills
- Obtain knowledge of the hospital, food service & dietetics industry in Victoria/Australia
- Obtain experience in dealing with the hospital, food service and dietetics industry

Schedule and Program of Occupational Training for Christine B.

Company	A Melbourne Hospital
Name of Student	Christine B.
University	University of Applied Science, Muenster GERMANY
Qualification	Bachelor of Home Economics & Nutrition
Start Training	1 Sep 03 (TBC)
Duration	20 weeks
Purpose	Practical work experience for Degree

Special Skills to be acquired

Familiarisation with methods and practices in the food service and nutrition industry in Victoria and Australia

Benefits for the student

The student will gain first hand experience with an Australian organisation.

The student will have insight into the workings and procedures of an Australian hospital dealing with food service and nutrition.

The student will converse, write and read exclusively in English and has the opportunity to improve language skills in Business and technical English.

Of considerable benefit will be the cross-cultural communication and exchange of procedures, systems and methods.

The proposed training for Christine B. does not involve employment and will not replace Australian employees with in the Melbourne Hospital.

Ms Virginia F.